

Codd hooks up with new Mode of doing business

ARCHITECTURAL practices Mode Design and Codd Stenders have merged.

The merger consists of the national Mode Design practice with studios in Brisbane, Darwin, Sunshine Coast, Gold Coast and Sydney and the Codd Stenders practice, which is based in Brisbane.

Codd Stenders will be re-branded Mode Codd Stenders, with a move to the brand Mode Design within two years.

Mode Design on Annerley Rd, will keep its name.

The Zone

FORMER Colliers International operative Grant Dearlove has popped up at private land marketing agency Oliver Hume.

Dearlove has been appointed as a director.

Oliver Hume plans to expand its presence in Queensland after entering in 2002.

THE developer behind Pavilions at Palm Beach has bolstered its onsite management and sales team.

Australian Property Growth Fund has appointed resident building manager Barry Tolhurst and residential and investment sales executive Kirsty Strowger.

Tolhurst will manage 104 apartments occupied by owners and tenants together with holiday letting.

FORMER residential property agent Ben Murphy is throwing himself into the commercial property market, taking up a position with Ray White Commercial Southport.

Murphy will work in office and retail leasing. He said his move into commercial property was prompted by the ongoing growth in the Gold Coast's business sector.

COLLIERS International has bolstered its Brisbane team with two recruits. Hunter Higgins has come across from CB Richard Ellis as an executive within the investment sales team where he will focus on commercial property within the Brisbane city fringe.

Meanwhile Mark Courtney has been appointed research director.

Courtney was previously with Urbis.

RE/MAX has put its money where its mouth is to support women in real estate.

The group has taken on Platinum Sponsorship of the Women's Real Estate Network.

The network which links women working within the industry was founded by Paula Shearer.

RE/MAX regional director Nicholas Thiele said the groups shared a common vision - providing greater support to women in achieving a work/life balance.
